

Responding to online concerns

If you or the young people you're working with have any concerns it's important you raise these appropriately. Speak to your organisation's Safeguarding Coordinator to find out what the process is for your organisation. Below is our suggested flowchart for responding:

Always speak to your Safeguarding Coordinator especially if the issue involves someone in the organisation in a position of trust.

Remember to keep the evidence. Don't delete anything that could be needed for a possible investigation.