

GRACE KIDS TEAM APPLICATION FORM

Thank you for wanting to serve with Grace Kids.
Please read the information below and fill in the form.
Please speak to Abi Maclannan if you have any questions or would like more information.

OUR AIM FOR GRACE KIDS:

To teach the children the whole Word of God faithfully, memorably, age-appropriately and sustainably, so each may hear and respond to the voice of the living God. (See Col 1v28)

- Embed knowledge about the Bible and God.
 - See how each story fits into the arc of the whole Bible story
 - See how God's grace in Jesus is central to everything
- Encourage faith in the children, through good application.

COMMITTING TO THE GRACE KIDS TEAM AS A LEADER OR A HELPER MEANS:

- Being a role models of Christian living to the children.
- Maintaining your own godliness and growth as a Christian.
- Regularly gathering with our church family on Sundays and at Grace Group/prayer meeting.
- Being open with the children about your faith in Jesus, helping them to understand how to live a life worthy of the gospel.
- Preparing and teaching each session, being faithful to God's word, engaging your own heart before you teach others.
- Engaging with parents to support and build relationships.
- Praying for the children and young people in your group.
- Seeking to make sessions fun and engaging for boys and girls (mix of physical and creative tasks), taking into account any special learning or other needs a child is known to have to make sessions accessible.
- Attending Safeguarding Training once a year, being familiar with the Safeguarding Policy which will be emailed to you (and is available on the church website for future reference). Re-reading the Safeguarding Summary once a term.
- Attending termly meetings for your relevant group (Crèche/Scramblers, Climbers/Explorers/Pathfinders).
